HOW IT'S DONE...

Offense we've got, but defense we've also got.

For perhaps 2 and a half minutes Monday night, the Yoemen dismantled an adequate district champion from Burnet. It was done with a full-court press.

Burnet never recovered. It was 28-12 in eight minutes. Cameron had done this to some inexperienced teams in district play, but unless Burnet kept it to themselves and 20 other teams they'd beaten, it was the first press that worked on them.

Cameron goes on to regional competition in Brenham Saturday. And if they can apply that kind of pressure for two quarters each game the rest of the season, beside double figure shooting among the big frontline, the Yoemen will find themselves in the state finals.

The final score was 76-53, but it could have been 100 if there had been any point to it.

This just tells what the Yoe potential is. And it suggests the Yoe is ready to deliver everything expected of a team averaging about 6-3, with two big postmen, a forward with a feather touch and legs of spring steel, three or four guards, now that Troy Daniels is trying to recoup, capable of icing a game like Randy Sapp did the other night.

The loss to Snook in a practice game was perhaps the psychological break of a slow-breaking season.

Cameron breezed its first half of the district without serious challenge, except for the first half here with Elgin. The Yoe visibly was losing an edge they hadn't yet achieved when they had to eke out wins in last second shots over West Lake and Hearne. Losing to Snook after edging Hutto in another practice game with a Class B power convinced the Yoe they had it, but could lose it with the slightest slip of potential against a high-rolling club.

The edge is starting to gleam a little bit after that first quarter with Burnet. The Yoe continues to play new opponents, each one a bit better, taller and surer of the game. But unless they have three guys 6-6 or the equivalent in jumping ability, like the Yoe has, they are going to get cut from regional and state competition.

It will take a big frontline, like the Yoe, plus great outside shooting and foul shooting to beat us. If we improve that free-throw element, it will be left to how bad our guys want the big ones in playoffs.

The Yoe is good, getting better, maybe just in time to see how much 100 percent is from a club maturing to championship level.

Dance, Contest

Add Funds To

March Of Dimes

Approximately 150 people attended the March of Dimes dance at Buckholts Friday night. Income from the dance and queen's contest made an additional $655 towards the 1975 MOD Campaign figure of $8,500.

Winners for the drawing were Thomas Harwell, Cameron, 1st prize; Henry Richards, Cameron, 2nd prize; and Alfons Tomek, Rt. 2, Buckholts, 3rd prize.

Out going queen, Marcia Rodenbeck, Thorndale, crowned Susan Simms, Thorndale, "Miss TAP of 1975". Other winners were Pat Horelica, 2nd place; Claudette Sanders 3rd place; Kathy Halrston, 4th place, all of Cameron, and Mary Ellen Ortega, 5th place, Rockdale.

A MOD benefit Record Hop at the Fair Park Pavilion in Rockdale will be held from 7 p.m. until midnight Friday, Feb. 28 and Mary Ellen Ortega and Margia Zamora, Rockdale will be in charge. Admission will be 75c per person or $1 per couple. All proceeds will go to the Milam County Chapter MOD.

Adult Education Meeting

Adult education classes will have an organizational meeting Tuesday, March 4 in Room 6, Yoe High. The meeting will start at 7:30 p.m. for interested persons wishing to prepare for the GED test. A minimum of 10 students is required and all interested are urged to attend.

'SNEET', a mixture of snow and sleet, fell on the county during Saturday night and Sunday morning as a howling norther blanketed the state with a winter storm. In Milam, most of the snow and sleet melted rapidly and temperatures rose from a high of 58 Monday with a low of 31, to a high of 80 Tuesday afternoon. The old saying is apt -- "If you don't like Texas weather, wait a minute."

IBEW Ratifies

New Contract,

Ends Strike

Members of the International Brotherhood of Electrical Workers Local 2078 ratified the new 18-month labor contract Saturday morning, ending a 26-day strike against Industrial Generating Co., power supplier for Alcoa's Rockdale Works.

The contract was presented to union negotiators Friday, the first day in more than a week IGC and IBEW representatives had met. IBEW negotiators took the contract to Local 2078 members the next morning. Terms of the new contract, according to Local 2078 business manager Joe Caldwell, include a 71-cent across the board pay raise, gains in vacation time, another holiday and an 8 percent increase in classification changes.

The pay raise is retroactive to Sept. 26, 1974, the day the previous contract expired, Caldwell said. Classification increases will be effective Sept. 26, 1975, he said.

IBEW members reported for work at 12:01 a.m. Monday, Caldwell said, ending a strike that began with the walkout at 12:01 a.m. Jan. 29. IGC supervisory personnel operated the power plant during the strike.

Farm Census

Continues In

State, Nation

More than half of the 4 million 1974 Census of Agriculture report forms mailed to farms and ranches nationwide have already been completed and returned, the Bureau of Census reports.

The Bureau, part of the Department of Commerce's Social and Economic Statistics Administration, mailed the forms right after Christmas and this rate of return is well ahead of the rate in 1969 when the farm census was first taken by mail.

Bureau officials say that the quality of the reporting is good. Farmers who have not mailed their complete forms can save time if they will read the instructions carefully before filling out the form.

Particular attention is called to the "skip" questions at the beginning of the sections on crops and the sections on livestock as well as for many of the individual sections. A check in the "No" box at the head of the crops section, if no crops were raised, or at the head of the livestock section, if there were no livestock or poultry operations, enables the farmer to skip individual questions in that section.

Every farmer's report form is confidential by law.

Schools To Mark Special Week

County and area schools have plans for open houses, visiting by parents, and other special events to mark Public School Week next week. The annual science fair for high school students will also be held in Cameron.

In Cameron schools, open house will be on the evening of Thursday, March 6 and has been set with this schedule: Ben Milam and Ada Henderson from 6:30 p.m. to 8; O. J. Thomas, 7 p.m. to 8:30; and Yoe High, 7 p.m. to 9.

Engineer Reports

Progress On

Water Extension

A Waco engineer gave a progress report on the proposed extension of the Salem-Elm Ridge Water Supply Corporation's supply system at an annual meeting Feb. 19.

A go-ahead was given the engineer, James Duff, to process a project report.

It was reported at the meeting that there were only three breaks in the water line, which is considerably less than last year.

Corporation officers are Alvin Mullinax, president; Charlie Tomek, vice president; Mrs. Milton Hubnik, secretary; and directors Wayne Orsag, Eugene Tomek, and Barney McLerran.

Rep. Kubiak Offers Plan For School Financing

(Editor's note: This is first of a two-part series on plans for public school financing offered by Gov. Dolph Briscoe and by Rep. Dan Kubiak. Today we print Kubiak's plan and Gov. Briscoe's plan will be published in the following Herald issue.)

AUSTIN

A public school finance bill providing 28 percent more State money for school districts and higher teacher pay was detailed Monday by Rep. Dan Kubiak (D-Rockdale).

Kubiak, former chairman of the House Education Committee, said in a Capitol press conference his bill shifts the financial burden from local districts to the State and provides additional money for poorer school districts through a "leeway" mechanism.

"This bill increases the State share of school finance from the present 52 percent to 80 percent," Kubiak said. "And the leeway funding system is designed to pump money into poor districts which have languished under the present finance system."

The higher a school district's local revenue, the higher the share it must pay to qualify for leeway funds, Kubiak said.

Two leeway categories channel up to $200 per pupil to below-average districts, Kubiak said, and districts become ineligible for any leeway financing if local revenue surpasses thresholds in each category.

Kubiak's bill also lowers local ad valorem tax rates from $1.50 to a maximum of $.75 per $100 property valuation and uses full market value rather than the current "economic index" for evaluating property.

"The finance portion of my proposal provides fair taxation regardless of a school district's wealth or location," Kubiak said. "It also distributes funds fairly, and every district will be equalized to provide education of consistent quality."

Teacher salaries are raised from the current $6,600 base level to

Farm Income Shows Drop

By Bill McCutchen

Gross farm income in Milam County slipped from $32 million in 1973 to $28 million in 1974 or a loss of some $4 million to the local economy.

One story these figures tell is that Milam County is fortunate to have a diversified agriculture. Losses in 1974 from cotton and cattle alone totaled $7.6 million or nearly double the $4 million net loss for the county. Other products took up some of the slack.

A loss of this magnitude has to have its effects on farmers, ranchers, and also on local businesses. Of this group probably the rancher has fared worse because ranching in its true sense is a one commodity business and this commodity has suffered most in depressed prices.

The big loss in the County's agricultural revenue was in beef cattle. Cattle sales of $10.5 million in 1973 were cut over half to $5.1 million in 1974. This represents much weaker prices through most of the year as well as producers holding cattle off the market.

Cotton, which was a healthy $4.9 million dollar crop in 1973, was estimated to be a $2.7 million crop in 1974. As about 40 percent of the 1974 production remained unsold as of the last of the year actual gross income from cotton during the 1974 calendar year was considerably less than the $2.7 million value placed on the crop.

The $2.2 million dollar decline in the county's cotton industry comes from both a decline in the yield per acre and declining market as compared with 1973.

Another major product showing a decline in 1974 was hogs. Milam County hog sales amounting to about $2.5 million in 1973 dropped to $2.0 million in 1974.

Some people seem to think that all or most of the agricultural income loss last year was about offset by increases in grain sorghum. Actually income from grain sorghum in 1974 was only slightly above 1973 or an increase of $300,000. The price received by farmers in 1974 averaged $4.35 per cwt as compared to $3.50 in 1973, but per acre yields were down to 2800# in 1974 as compared to 3600# in 1973. Incidentally the 1973 crop was the largest ever on a per acre average.

Other crops helping to take up a little of the slack in 1974 included wheat, pecans, and hay. Most of the other commodities did not fluctuate much in income production. Hay sales were up to $1.5 million in 1974 as compared to $1.0 million in 1973. This increase was due more to increased production and baling costs than increased sales or production.

Wheat production which was almost negligible in 1973, brought in $350,000 in 1974. Pecans, which were a failure in 1973, brought in $200,000 in 1974.

Another story is the increased production costs over the past year. Seed costs, fertilizer, fuel prices, machinery costs, chemical costs, and virtually every other input that is made in agriculture has increased drastically, so in terms of net loss to agriculture in 1974, Milam County suffered considerably more than shows on the surface.

County Has 1st Fatality In Bridge Accident

A Belton man became Milam County's first traffic fatality of the year when he was killed in a head-on accident on Little River bridge near Cameron early Monday morning.

Pronounced dead on arrival at St. Edward Hospital was Jimmy Culp, 33, of Rt. 3 Belton. He was driver of a 1967 Pontiac that collided head-on with a Rainbo Bakery truck driven by Willie Beseda of Waco. Beseda was not injured.

According to investigating highway patrolman Milton Wright of Cameron, Culp's vehicle was traveling south in the northbound lane of the bridge when the accident occurred at 4:15 a.m.

Traffic on the bridge was halted for about an hour after the accident, which happened midway on the bridge.

students which might attend class.

- * A new transportation funding formula which would provide more money for school busses beginning in 1975-76.

- * Increased operating and maintenance funding, going from the present $30 per pupil each year to $60 in 1976 and rising to $130 per student in 1978-79.

- * A compensatory education funding system for disadvantaged students. Kubiak said the pre-student allocation would be $37.50 in 1975-76 and would rise to $75 per student in 1976-77.

- * Research and development evaluation funding to analyze changing needs of the public school system.

- * Continued development of the quarter-system curriculum. Kubiak noted that, while his new education bill bears the same number (BH 946) as his education bill from the 63rd Legislature, the content of the new bill differs from the old one.

Preference Primary Voted By House Group

Texas may be selecting their presidential nominating convention delegates in a special primary next year.

A presidential preference primary bill was voted out of the House Elections Committee in spite of heavy opposition from a parade of witnesses.

Significantly, perhaps, the Committee vote came on the same day U.S. Sen. Lloyd Bentsen of Texas announced his candidacy for the Democratic presidential nomination.

Bentsen has acknowledged his interest in seeing a preference primary established in his home state, although he insists he is not making a major campaign for it.

Texas now choose delegates to presidential nominating conventions in state conventions of the major parties.

Under the proposal approved by the Committee, delegates would be elected on the primary election ballot. Presidential candidates would pick their own delegates in each of Texas' 31 senatorial districts.

Opponents assailed the bill advanced by Rep. Tom Schieffer of Fort Worth as a "winner take all" measure. Schieffer insisted that it is not, and claimed Democratic party rules authorize such methods of naming delegates. Bentsen aides reportedly feel the primary will make it possible for him to get a bigger share of Texas delegates than he would win under the existing convention system, although this is subject to question.

MORE FUNDS DUE
Texas will get $64.2 million in recently-released federal funds to aid cities with building sewage treatment facilities.

The money, impounded by presidential directive, was ordered released last week by the U.S. Supreme Court. It is in addition to $111 million released immediately after the High Court's decision.

Water Quality Board members are working on a list of cities which will receive the $64.2 million.

WQB Executive Director Hugh C. Yantis Jr. said Texas will also be permitted to allocate separate funds to large cities and small cities. In the past, small cities have had to compete with large cities for available funds.

OIL ALLOWABLE SET
Texas Railroad Commission once more set the statewide oil production allowable at 100 per cent for March.

For three years, the Commission has been directing all-out production, and at the same time imported oil is continuing to flow in.

Commission Chairman Ben Ramsey said 4,023,000 barrels were imported the first week of February, a considerable increase over January. Buyers asked for 4,055,124 barrels of Texas oil daily, which represents a 8,946 barrel decrease from February.

SPEED LIMIT DEBATED
House members found extending the 55-mile-per-hour speed limit hard to accept, and sent the legislation to accomplish it back to committee.

Some want to levy a minor $5 fine (not attributable to insurance rates) for speeding offenses between 55 and 70 miles an hour.

When all the fussing is over, the Legislature almost certainly will extend the present limit. To do otherwise would risk loss of $303 million a year in federal highway funds.

COURTS SPEAK

An Austin district judge granted Atty. Gen. John Hill's request for a temporary injunction to stop a $45 million increase in Texas intrastate long distance telephone rates March 1.

Frances "Sissy" Farenthold's year-old campaign finance lawsuit against Gov.

Dolph Briscoe and key campaign aides was dismissed at her own request. She had sought a $2.5 million civil recovery—and ended up paying the court costs.

Texas Supreme Court held a doctor can be made responsible for medical bills of a defective child born to a mother who had German measles during pregnancy where the physician failed to give proper warning of dangers.

The High Court sustained a $5,117 jury finding for a woman who was hurt when another driver turned right at a "confusing" experi-

Dear editor:

An economist in boom times is like a coach with good material and a winning season - - everybody hails him as a smart hombre and wants to give him a raise, but let a recession set in or the material play out and the public turns thumbs down in a hurry.

With times what they are, I guess the reputations of the country's economists are in the worst shape they've ever been in. You know, one says the way to stabilize things is to balance the budget, another says forget the budget, cut the taxes; another says yeah, cut taxes by 12 billion dollars, another says no, cut them by 20 billion. One says things will get better in the third quarter of the year, another says he sees improvement by the fourth quarter, another says it won't happen till 1976, another won't answer his phone and hopes nobody remembers what his prediction was.

But not a one that I can find told us six months ago what was fixing to take place

In other words, economists, if you listen to enough of them, turn out to be as confused as the rest of us. In short, they're in the wrong profession, and I got to thinking.

Now we've got enough unemployment as it is without adding all the economists to the ranks, so I've been trying to figure out what other line of work they'd be suited for and I have come up with the answer: they ought to become weather forecasters, where nobody expects you to be right more than 10 per cent of the time.

But, you may argue, wouldn't that throw the regular weather forecasters out of work?

Come to think of it, I guess it would, which just goes to show that I don't know any more about solving the country's economic plight than anybody else you're hearing from. I know so little about it I'm almost Congressional material.

Yours faithfully,
J. A.

mental red arrow signal in Wichita Falls.

In still another case, the Supreme Court agreed with Attorney General Hill that a Galveston proposal to issue $26 million in bonds to build a grain elevator in a city harbor should have been rejected.

AG OPINIONS

Counties may be granted limited zoning authority over parts of islands and other recreation territories within their boundaries but outside city limits.

In other recent opinions, Hill concluded:

• Statistics on juvenile crime may be furnished the Department of Public Safety by local agencies provided information does not identify offenders.

• Revenue in a county road and bridge fund can be transferred to the general fund and used for any lawful purpose.

• No funds are appropriated for research and management for protection of the white-winged dove, although money may be spent for acquiring a dove habitat.

Updating Checkerboard...

In a two-part series, The Cameron Herald will present the basic elements of education bills introduced by Rep. Dan Kubiak, of Rockdale, and Governor Dolph Briscoe.

Rep. Kubiak this week, in effect, reintroduced a bill defeated by Briscoe and the Senate in 1973. The Governor is coming up with his own proposal.

Point is this state is too big, too behind in education to go another session without developing a modern finance schedule for public schools, not only for teachers but for the system itself.

This newspaper supported without reservation the work of Houston's Leon Jaworski and his education committee in the mid-60's which proposed minimum size school districts and quality throughout Texas schools, regardless of size.

The Hale-Aiken formula for school finance and management was approved in 1949.

The changes in Texas in that quarter-century are like comparing the size of Rhode Island and Texas.

Kubiak's proposals are substantially what was defeated in 1973, even with compromise efforts failing, much like the 3-vote shortfall for a new constitutional proposal.

It is time for Texas to update its school, its school finance, and its whole checkerboard view of education. It has been teachers for more pay, taxpayers for fairer treatment or nostalgic "no-tax" eras, patrons for athletic complexes instead of culture development.

We hope both House and Senate find the balance which will get Kubiak's proposals beyond House vote and Briscoe support in the Senate to get a bill before the Governor which will put Texas school finance in reasonable distance of the contemporary development of Texas.

WHAT TO DO WITH BACON DRIPPINGS...

Allow the drippings to cool and settle before pouring them in a container and storing. Refrigerate or store in the freezer.

- Bacon drippings have about 1/3 the cholesterol of butter.
- Rub bacon drippings on potatoes prior to baking for flavorful, soft skins.
- Drippings can replace the shortening used in pancake batter, yeast breads and used to make popcorn.

Quality Cotton Seed May Be In Short Supply

Quality cottonplanting seed may be in short supply due to delayed harvest operations last fall caused by unfavorable weather. But producers should buy the best seed available to get this year's crop off to a good start.

According to Dr. Bob Metzger, cotton specialist for the Texas Agricultural Extension Service, the Blacklands and High and Rolling Plains areas of Texas were especially hard hit by adverse weather while better weather prevailed during the harvest season in the Rio Grande Valley, Coastal Bend, and South Texas.

"Generally good quality planting seed can be expected in areas where the cotton crop was harvested with less weather damage," notes the specialist.

"Maximum lint and seed quality occurs at openboll," explains Metzger. "Therefore, quality goes in only one direction—down. How fast and how far quality drops in the field is determined by two factors—how long open bolls remain in the field and the type of weather conditions during field exposure."

However, the specialist hastens to point out that seed quality can be further reduced if wet seed cotton is stored in trailers, racks or modules. "Good seed can be ruined for planting purposes in a matter of hours if it heats in storage. Seed cotton should be ginned immediately and not stored if it exceeds 12 percent moisture."

Why is high quality seed so important in getting a crop off to a good start?

First, high quality seed tolerates cold, wet soil conditions that cause seedlings disease. This means full early stands even with unfavorable spring weather. Secondly, good seed means rapid emergence and seeking growth with the advent of favorable weather after planting. High quality seed also contributes to uniform seedling growth and fewer abnormal seedlings.

"Due to the generally poor quality seed produced this past season, germination standards for certified seed have been reduced from 80

Gin Trash Rates High As Roughage

RALEIGH Cotton gin trash (CGT), already used locally in some areas as feed for ruminant animals, could be extensively marketed, with widespread distribution of large quantities, if it is processed into pellets, or cubes.

As it comes from the gin, CGT is a loose, bulky material, difficult to handle and about as expensive to transport as it is worth.

But a new study by Cotton Incorporated suggests that in pelleted, or cubed, form CGT could increase sharply in dollar value—and in potential profits for cotton producers.

Cotton Incorporated is the research and marketing company sponsored by U. S. cotton growers.

CGT can be fed to ruminants as roughage of moderate protein and energy values, said Dr. George A. Slater, Cotton Incorporated vice president of agricultural research.

"It can be used in feedlot finishing and growing rations and in cow maintenance rations," said Slater.

"It rates high as a roughage, because it induces the best digestive conditions possible in ruminant animals."

Slater said every bale of cotton ginned yields 150-500 pounds of CGT, depending on whether it is picked or stripped cotton.

to 70 percent germination," notes Metzger. "So, producers in some cases may not have a choice and must use lower quality seed than desired."

If low quality seed must be used, the specialist offers these suggestions to help obtain an adequate stand. Delay planting until soil has warmed. Avoid planting too deep, as low quality seed cannot tolerate too much covering soil. Increase seedling rates, but not more than 25 percent.

"Current high production costs and low prices demand that producers get an early start with a minimum of replanting to produce a profitable crop," says Metzger. "Seed cost represents only five to six percent of the total production cost. So, investing in the highest quality seed available is essential in getting a cotton crop off to a good start."

GSPA Calls For Farm Stabilization

LUBBOCK Mabry Foreman of Felt, Okla., vice president of the Lubbock-based Grain Sorghum Producers Association, appeared before the House Committee on Agriculture Feb. 19 calling for immediate action to help stabilize the farm economy.

Foreman, who along with GSPA vice president Melvin Barton of Dimmitt, Tex., testified before the Senate agriculture committee earlier this month, was accompanied by Y. F. Snodgrass of Abilene, Tex., GSPA service director. Both the House and Senate are considering major revisions in the 1973 farm bill.

In his remarks to the Livestock and Grain Subcommittee, meeting in conjunction with the Cotton Subcommittee, Foreman said "Farmers have not been so close to the brink of bankruptcy since the Great Depression... and we have never seen them more disturbed or disillusioned than they are at the present time."

Foreman pointed out that it has been impossible for farmers to predict prices from one day to the next, "much less one month to the next" and that "the interruption of the markets by government actions, such as price freezes, cancellation of grain sales and the threat of embargo has caused the market to become so unstable that speculators or grain consumers dared not buy ahead."

The GSPA officer said the farmer takes all the risk with very little gain in order to produce at maximum levels, which he is asked to do in the national and public interest. "The time has come that the American farmer should cut back to the production level which we know will give him a return on his cost of production plus a fair living wage," Foreman said.

Speaking on behalf of Grain Sorghum Producers Association, Foreman sought a total target price of "not less than 85 percent of parity" and loan rates established at "not less than 90 percent of the target prices." He said GSPA opposes any restriction placed on the export of agricultural goods and is against a strategic food reserve because of tendencies to "seriously retard or break market prices at times when farmers desperately need good prices to stay in business."

Animal Ag Conference Includes 6 Short Courses

The present economic situation as it relates to animal agriculture will be discussed by major speakers during the second annual Animal Agriculture Conference Apr. 10-11 at the J. Earl Rudder Center at Texas A&M University.

A featured speaker will be Ken Monfort, president of Monfort of Colorado, and a leader in the cattle feeding and packing industries. He will discuss "Outlook for the Livestock Industry."

"Through the various companies he is associated with, Monfort has personal experience and current knowledge on the lamb and cattle feeding industry, the packing industry, and experiences in developing new markets both here and abroad," explained L. A. Maddox, beef cattle specialist, Texas Agricultural Extension Service.

Another highlight is expected to be a panel discussion on current economics of animal agriculture, including forces at work in that market that influence the livestock situation, said Maddox, general conference chairman.

Besides the general conference sessions, separate short courses are set for beef, dairy, swine, horses, forages and pastures, and range and wildlife.

Information presented at the general sessions on outlook for feed, cattle, and finance should be of great interest to cattlemen. Additionally, information on range and pasture will help producers feed more economically. Monfort will make a second presentation at the Beef Short Course on the potential to reduce marketing margins from the producer to the consumer.

Other subjects for discussion at the Beef Short Course will be meat quality, retail acceptance, alternative merchandizing methods, management for good herd reproduction, land use, taxation, government regulation, and beef promotion. Swine producers attending the Swine Short Course will hear discussions on swine records, reducing odors in swine buildings, breeding in confinement, a new marketing system for swine, feed mixing facilities, and methods of storing grain on the farm, said Dr. Bill Thomas, Extension Service swine specialist.

The Dairy Section will feature discussion on the economics of dairy cattle feeding, forage feeding systems to maximize forage intake, the pricing situation, use of genetic matings in dairy herd improvement, new pesticide regulations and enforcement provisions, dairy credit resources, and dairy herd health.

Texas forage producers who take part in the Pasture Session will obtain latest information and ideas to improve their pasture production and management practices. Topics to be discussed are legumes, facts on fertilizing pastures, forage-fomosed beef, management practices for maximizing efficiency, and a workshop on forage production and utilization.

Producers Look At Harvesting Methods

In the face of drastic changes in cotton prices and the costs of cotton production, cotton producers should take a long, hard look at their capital investment in harvesters and at the way they use modern, high-speed pickers or strippers.

A new study by Cotton Incorporated shows that harvesting decisions based on possible gin jam-ups are almost as outdated as hand-picking.

"The modular system for harvesting, handling, storing, and ginning seed cotton has liberated harvesting operations from restraints imposed by slow ginning," says J. K. ("Farmer") Jones, associate director of agricultural research for mechanization at Cotton Incorporated.

Cotton Incorporated is the research and marketing company of U. S. cotton growers. The new study was prepared by Dr. William Lalor, manager of systems and cost engineering in the agricultural research division.

LIFE CONSUMPTION

During a lifetime, the average American consumes 26,000,000 tons of water, 10,000 pounds of meat, 14 tons of milk and cream, 9,000 pounds of wheat, and 9 pounds of wheat, and great quantities of other products from the earth.

Wheat Prospects... Planting Plans... Orange Harvest Underway... Remember March 17.

A record wheat harvest for 1975? No one knows yet, but the stage is set for what could be the third consecutive record wheat harvest. Winter wheat producers have expanded plantings by six per cent. In Texas, wheat on the High and Low Plains has made little growth due to cold weather.

Slow growth caused short grazing conditions. However, gains during the first 60 days of the grazing period have been good. Green bug problems are developing.

Nationwide, the 1975 wheat crop could reach more than two billion bushels. Wheat harvest will begin in Texas in May.

In order to give Texas wheat producers more information, the Texas Crop and Livestock Reporting Service will issue a Texas winter wheat forecast on April 9.

Only estimated production for Texas will be published at that time. The early Texas wheat estimate will be included in the April Texas Crop Report. If you want a copy of it, write to the Texas Crop and Livestock Reporting Service, Box 70, Austin, Texas 78767.

WHILE some farmers are still making 1975 cropping plans, other producers in Texas are busy with planting chores. And while cotton harvesting operations are winding up on the High Plains, farmers in the Rio Grande Valley are planting cotton.

Primarily because of weather, only a small per cent of the cotton crop has been planted to date in the Valley. Estimates are that less than five per cent of the 1975 crop has been put in the ground. Projections that at least a 50 per cent reduction in cotton acres in that area continues to be valid.

Meanwhile, South Texas farmers are planting sorghum and producers in Central Texas are "chomping at the bit" to get started, too. Many areas of the state are still too wet to work for spring crops.

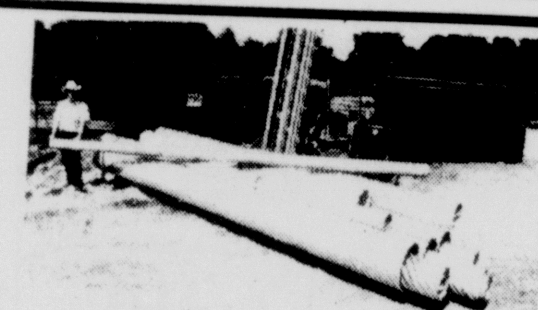

Farmers—as well as city dwellers—are also making big plans for home gardens this year throughout the state.

HARVEST of oranges in the Rio Grande Valley is approaching the final stages. Based on Feb. 1 conditions, the 1974-75 Texas citrus crop is forecast at 12.9 million boxes; this is down 25 per cent from the previous season. Overall, grapefruit harvest is down 27 per cent from last year.

And while citrus harvest is nearing its end, cotton planting is in progress in the Valley. Indications there still point to a 50 per cent reduction in acreage compared to last year. One of the reasons for this is that about two-thirds of the 1974 cotton crop in Texas is still unsold.

BE ON THE lookout for the March 17 planting intentions report. It will be issued on or about that date and will give producers a better insight into what the nation's farmers are planning in the way of planting projections for major crops.

Also included in the report will be Texas farmers' planting plans for 1975.

ANOTHER GREAT VARIETY FROM ROGERS

QUAPAW

GOOD PRODUCTION

Quapaw cotton has a consistent high lint yield with approximately 85 pounds per bale more seed production than most other varieties.

GOOD FIBER

Quapaw cotton matures early resulting in consistency of fiber elongation. Staple length 31/32 to 34/32. Quapaw is a mature fiber of high natural luster. "The mills like it."

GOOD MICRONAIRE

Quapaw's early maturity gives consistent good fiber with micronaire between 3.8 and 4.5 (well within market specifications). Quapaw's micronaire is an important price factor in today's market.

GOOD COLD TOLERANCE

Reports from growers (Texas Valley to High Plains) say that Quapaw can withstand more adverse conditions than most varieties resulting in "less plant over." Quapaw is bred for "once over harvesting" and is adaptable for either picker or stripper.

Oriental Flower Show Planned

A Japanese tea ceremony, the art of Bonsai and a special exhibit of Bromeliads will be extra features of the Fleur de lis Garden Club spring flower show Tuesday, March 4.

The show titled "Ikebana" (a flower show in the Oriental manner) will be held at the home of Dr. and Mrs. E. Douglas Perrin, 2005 N. Harding and will be open to the public from 3 to 5:30 p.m.

Kaoru Masaki of Kyosi, Japan, will demonstrate the traditional Japanese tea ceremony at 3:30 p.m. Miss Masaki, an exchange student who is making her home with the Keith Raine family for the school year, studied the formal art of the tea ceremony and flower arranging in Kyosi. The ceremony is noted for the deliberate, graceful movements of the server and requires a year of study to master the precise ritual.

She will be assisted by Harumi Iia of Fukui-ken, Japan. Miss Iida is also an exchange student at Yoe High School this year, living with the John Chubb family.

Flower arrangements for the placement show will be in the oriental art form and a continuous slide show will demonstrate the art of Bonsai. Another special feature of the show will be an exhibit of Bromeliads grown by Dr. George Bowman.

In the show's horticulture division a class for non-members is scheduled. Guest exhibitors interested in entering pet plants in this division are asked to contact Mrs. Bill McCutchen by Saturday, March 1.

Flower show judges will be honored at a luncheon Tuesday at the home of Mrs. Monroe Fuchs.

Mrs. Don Humble and Mrs. Dana Kestenbaum are show co-chairmen.

ORIENTAL FLAVOR—Kaoru Masaki will demonstrate the graceful Japanese tea ceremony as a special feature of the Fleur de lis Garden Club spring flower show Tuesday, March 4 at the home of Dr. and Mrs. Douglas Perrin. Miss Masaki is an exchange student attending Yoe High School this year.

'Queen Of The Garden Rose' Topic As The CGC Meets

The members of the Civic Garden Club held their February meeting on last Thursday at the club house of the Business & Professional Women. Mrs. W. M. Fanning and Mrs. Sam B. Houston were hostesses assisted by Mrs. Milton Falkner. During the social hour preceding the meeting proper, they served a variety of refreshments with coffee and hot tea.

The theme of the program was "Queen of the Garden - Roses." A panel of three members presented "Listen and Learn." Mrs. Sam B. Houston gave the classification of roses such as hybrid tea, grandiflora, multiflora, polyantha, climbers and others. Mrs. Jack Biggam gave instructions for the care and culture of roses. She pointed out that spraying is most essential for black spot control and made mention that the Milam County area is a problem area for roses since root-rot is quite prevalent and this is not tolerated by the rose. Hence, the life of some plants is short.

Mrs. Milton Falkner gave pointers on flower show practice with reference to exhibiting roses in a flower show. She noted that grooming the specimen is most important, that is, that it should be clean, all damaged foliage removed or slightly trimmed and any outer petals which show damage may be carefully removed. The rose should be well conditioned by placing it in water up to the neck so that it will last well for the duration of a given flower show.

The flower arrangement for the artistic demonstration was made and discussed by Mrs. Leo Fuchs.

Mrs. M.H. Wimberly presided for a short business session. Members answered roll call by naming a hybrid tea rose. Mrs. Robert Glenn, Sr. was welcomed as a new member to the club.

Plans for the forthcoming flower show by the club on April 9 at the Cameron Community Center were discussed.

Members made plans to attend the District V. Texas Garden Clubs, Inc. Spring meeting which will be held in College station, March 18.

The next meeting of the club will be held on March 13 with Mrs. Eula Crook as hostess and Mrs. Milton Falkner as co-hostess.

Yoemen Advance To Regional Tourney

The Cameron Yoemen destroyed 24AA titlist Burnet, Monday in a first quarter press and breezed into the Brenham Regional tournament with a 76-53 bi-district win.

The Yoe full court press throttled the Bulldog offense at Killeen's mid-court and vaulted the 19-4 Yoemen to a 28-12 lead.

It was insurmountable.

After four straight Bulldog turnovers and four straight Yoe field goals the Bulldogs surrendered by calling timeout. The press was done to perfection by the clean handed Yoemen.

Jafus White was in the spotlight and soared the Yoemen to their win by burning the nets of Roo Gym with 21 points the first half. Bennett worked the inside to the Yoemen advantage and tallied double figures with 10.

The damage had been done by the end of the first half and in the final two sections of play the Yoemen showed mercy toward the Bulldogs.

The Yoemen scored 16 in the last three stanzas which was enough to overtake the Bulldogs efforts of, 12, 13, and 16 respectively.

The second half work was done by the total Yoe squad as everyone had the opportunity to display their talents to the large Cameron crowd.

Jafus White only pumped in one field goal the second half, but his effects had already done the job. Harry Brooks leaped his way into double figures in the final half tallying 16 for the night.

Harry Brooks and Gary Hornung swept the boards and led the Yoemen in the rebounding department.

Brooks downed 14 sound rebounds while Hornung gained 9 for the Yoemen.

Burnet had two players to rank double figures as George Heisler dumped in 14 and Jay Fry penetrated the hoop for 10.

The Yoemen went to the free throw line 23 times and tallied 14 points. The Bulldogs walked to the grace line to connect on 13 of 21 tries.

The Bulldogs season ended with a 20-9 record which was only to end as did their football season, to the Cameron Yoemen. As the Burnet coach stated earlier, the only bad thing about winning district is to face the Cameron Yoemen in the bi-district playoffs.

CLEAN FOOD

Fish fed to penguins in zoos must be scrupulously cleaned of bacteria, the National Geographic Society says. Because the air in their natural habitat, Antarctica, is nearly germ-free, the birds are highly susceptible to infection.

Yoe To Play Katy Saturday At Brenham

The Cameron Yoemen will face Katy in the Brenham Regional tournament, Saturday, March 1. The Yoemen will take the Blinn Jr. College hardwoods at 11 a.m. when they face undefeated Katy.

Coach Poole announced Wednesday morning that the first game of the regional series will start at 9:30 a.m. where Westwood will play Kuntz. Kuntz beat Kirbyville Tuesday night 71-60, while Westwood defeated West 67-61.

The winners of these games will advance to the finals that will be played at 7:30 p.m. Saturday. The winner of that game will advance to the state playoffs in Austin.

Yoe Girls Wins Over Giddings

In a double match between the Yoe Volleyballers and Giddings, Yoe girls teams scored double wins, last Friday at Yoe Gym.

Genovera Soriano placed away 10 points in two games in junior varsity action to become the teams leading scorer. In the first game Yoe spiked their way to a 15-6 win. It didn't take the girls to the clock as they jumped to the match win, 16-14.

In an important win the Yoe varsity girls gained a match win that took three games to bring them the winning status. Giddings earlier in the season narrowly defeated the Yoe girls in a three game match.

In the opening game Giddings stunned Yoe 15-7. The Yoe girls changed scoring to their advantage by over coming a tough spiking Giddings teams, 15-12.

In the third game that was to decide the winner the clock ran out and the winner was decided by the team gaining a two point advantage.

In a rally that took 45 seconds the Yoe girls worked together to gain the 15-13 game victory that also allowed them the match win.

Sports Spotlight

By Forrest Guess

Milam county might be named as the basketball county of the state. Every class will be represented by four Milam County teams.

In Class B, the Milano Eagles will play Axtell for the Bi-District title March 4.

In Class A, the Thorndale Bulldogs will be playing for the Bi-District title. The Bulldogs will play Snook for the match.

In Class AAA, the Rockdale Tigers clinched the title and will meet Tomball in Bryan.

The Yoemen gave Milam County the Class AA district title and was the first to clinch a playoff berth in Regional playoffs.

The Yoemen did an outstanding job against the Burnet Bulldogs and they will advance to the Regional tournament this Saturday. The Yoemen will take the hardwoods in the Regional opener against either Katy or Huffman. The game has been scheduled to begin at 11 a.m. in the Blinn Jr. College gym in Brenham.

of some of the returning lettermen because of elongated basketball season.

Coach Nelson Huffman's runners will start their season this weekend at the Hearne Relays. The Yoemen will definitely learn to be patient, a thing that goes along with the fine winning tradition of the athletic department.

The scheduling of each sport is so tight that the winners of one sport seem to be penalized with their delay, in advancing into the playoffs. Some coaches would really welcome the delay but the Yoe coaching staff if growing acustom to delays.

It is great to see the fine jobs that each of the coaches do in their specialties. Coach Ken Poole has really had an outstanding Cameron and Yoe High debut. Where there are winners, you will find great leaders and the Yoe coaching staff should really be praised for the fine job they are doing for the school and community.

As the basketball team had a late start, the Tracksquad will experience the absence

Which CRUMBLES First ?

Here stands what remains of a Grecian temple dating to 300 B.C.

Which crumbles first — the civilization or its religion? Do spiritual foundations collapse because a culture is in trouble? Or do cultures deteriorate because their spiritual foundations are collapsing?

To historians it's like the question about the chicken or the egg.

My main concern is our own civilization. This involves my family and the contribution we can make. We have a Bible — we read it! We have a Faith — we try to live it!

My religion makes me conscious of the dangers of today's civilization. Yet, I am an optimist . . . especially on Sunday when my family is at church . . . and when we see your family there too!
